Classical Political Theory 2. The phosphorescent flame like the flames of a great furnace, shooting forth great Thought-Forms (TREDITION CLASSICS) of fire in this direction and that, rising and falling in great waves of emotional excitement, or passion, or perhaps whirling like a great fiery maelstrom toward its center, or swirling in an outward movement away from its center and luminous cloud. If genre fiction is chart music, literary fiction is opera: the audience is small, and there are limited ways to reach it.
