Included are tips for introducing and using Readers Theatre with students in the classroom. They quickly set off through the woods in search of their home. Again, depending on the dynamics of your overall classroom reading program or library program, the lessons may last for as little as 10 minutes or as much as one hour. Students should be provided with practice time in class and should also be encouraged to practice their respective parts at home.

It is not necessary, or even required, to do any type of formalized evaluation of the program. Anthony D. My Book Lists.
