Jonathan Kyle lost two military brothers in combat. But the most important thing was the desperate pleas to a powerful God who widened our path and lighted our darkness. Processing the sudden death of a child is nearly impossible.

That means a willingness to give up things and being open to not having what you want. It brings life. I wish we knew the answer to that question. To courageously follow in the painful steps of Jesus? Get Tickets. Jesus gave us the church as the primary place for people to get help when they are in pain. Myth number one is this: The Christians are always supposed to be happy, that we are supposed to just laugh and dance and be happy all the time.
