FindingtheirplaceattheheartofPfizer. Lists with This Book. I feel somehow homesick for places I've only visited, which are much different than the lushly described, barely settled land Isabella Bird travelled. The descriptions of the beauty and wild state of this land during the four fall and winter months she lives there is very entertaining and you feel like you have never been as free and unfettered as she . Address2.My grandma gave me this book for my seventeenth birthday, 18 months before she died, with the inscription, "Melody, dear -- Isabella Bird will surely take you on a grand adventure!"
